

Nan Stothard has extensive experience as a coach and program developer. She led group training and facilitation, provided career development assistance, and coached clients at various levels from a wide array of industries.

Along with program development, Nan's career has also focused on design and global implementation. She is a skilled trainer and facilitator. A significant part of her work has been the coaching of individual leaders including military veterans and MD MBAs.

Nan's 20+ years of successful coaching is attributable to her style: a direct communicator, skilled at asking probing questions, willing to give tough feedback, and a desire to help clients accept accountability.

Nan worked in education, including serving as the Director of Education for a non-profit organization, before joining Right Management Consultants in 1991. As Regional Vice President, managing a team of 50+ consultants, Nan spearheaded the development, design, and implementation of several career programs and traveled to many Right Management offices, including Australia and the Pacific Rim, to provide Train-the-Trainer sessions.

As a Learning Partner with Option One Mortgage Corporation, she supported the servicing business unit. In this role she spearheaded a team that designed, developed, and implemented an acculturation program for the management team responsible for opening a captive site in Pune, India.

As the Senior Associate Director of MBA Career Services at The Paul Merage School of Business at the University of California, Irvine, she oversaw all training and advising services for 1,000 MBA students. In this role she created and implemented a blended career management program, which was purchased by other MBA Career Centers across the world. She continues working as a consultant for The Merage School.

Nan earned a Bachelor of Music degree in Piano Performance from the Eastman School of Music of the University of Rochester, New York. She holds a Master of Science degree from the University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee in Educational Psychology. She is certified in the administration and interpretation of several instruments, including the Myers Briggs Type Indicator, Strong Interest Inventory, Birkman, and CareerLeader.
