

Tamara brings a rich background in business with over 20 years of combined experience working within leading corporations and coaching executives.

Through the years, she has accumulated a wealth of knowledge about navigating through organizations, developing value propositions, attaining goals and delivering results to meet business objectives. Tamara has leadership experience within the consumer goods, apparel and telecom industries.

In her leadership role with AT&T, she launched their prepaid promotional phone card product and personally generated revenue over $30 million in one year.

Today, Tamara specializes in executive coaching. Working with business leaders, she partners with clients in a thought-provoking and creative process that inspires them to maximize their personal and professional potential.

Since 2005, Tamara has successfully served executives from industries such as airline, automotive, cruise line, consulting, transaction processing, technology, manufacturing, healthcare, banking, media, non-profit, commercial real estate, security, retail, insurance, restaurant, city government, engineering, hospitality and retained search.

Her education and training include a Master of Business Administration from the University of Maryland University College, a Master of Science Degree in Management, and a Bachelor of Science Degree in Communication Arts, University of Alabama. She has an Associate Certified Coach (ACC) credential from the International Coach Federation and is certified to administer and interpret the EQi2.0, Hogan, Birkman Method, and DiSC assessments.

Tamara served as President, SHRM-Atlanta and as a Board member. Currently, she is on the HR Advisory Board, UnitedWay of GreaterAtlanta.